Introduction

This is a sample document created for Adobe Hackathon Round 1A testing. It contains structured headings that should be detected by your extractor.py.

Background

The background section explains the context and the goals of the project.

Objective

This section describes the specific objectives of the hackathon task.

Expected Output

This section discusses the expected JSON output with H1, H2, and H3 level headings.